Executive Director V

Teacher Education Council Secretariat

Dear ED JOCSON,

Warm greetings from the Research Institute for Teacher Quality (RITQ)!

Following our recent Alignment Meeting with TEC on Teacher Education Reframing Initiatives, the RITQ is pleased to transmit to your good office the updated versions of the draft curriculum support materials developed under the research project "Development of Models of Pre-service Teacher Education Curricula and Programs Phase 2: Specialization Components and Specialized Program."

The comments, feedback, and questions raised during the alignment meeting have been thoroughly integrated and addressed to further refine these resources for your final vetting and approval:

- Unpacking the Reframed Pre-service Teacher Education Curriculum: A Resource Guide
- Unpacking the Reframed Pre-service Teacher Education Curriculum: A Professional Learning Guide

Together, these refined materials form a comprehensive delivery package, ready to support upcoming capacity-enhancement activities and to translate the vision of the reframed curriculum into actionable institutional practices.

Thank you once again for your continuous partnership, guidance, and support.

Sincerely,

BRANDITO C. PALOMAR, PhD

Director
